

The Shield 256

Joliet Township High School Central Campus Archives Committee

This 1956 Joliet Junior College yearbook is one of nineteen given to the Joliet Township High Schools-Central Campus Archives Committee for a permanent collection by Hope Rajala, JTHS Class of 1944. Included is one copy of a 1973 publication about JJC and its work with education of prison inmates in the Joliet area.

We Dedicate This Book

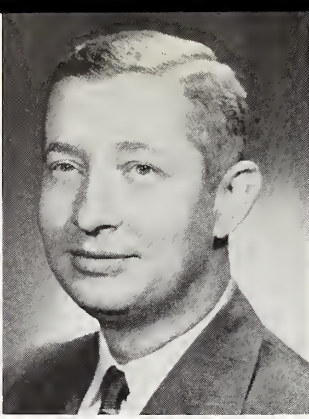

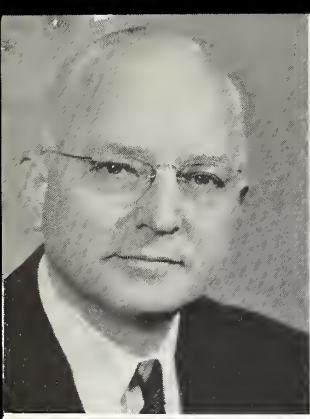

To the 1956 graduating class members who will be citizens of the All-America City of tomorrow, keeping Joliet's government and civic organizations on the same award-winning level as today. May they keep working for improvements which will help to combat juvenile delinquency and, as their predecessors did, plan in advance to have enough educational facilities to accommodate the growing number of young people in a growing All-America City, so that Joliet will be not just a one-year award winner, but perennially among the top cities of the country for providing effective youth programs, improving government and expanding educational facilities.

The All-America City award was presented to Joliet officials on Dec. 20, 1955 by Look magazine and the National Municipal League. It was based on the civic advancements in the city as exemplified by the Citizens School Survey and the Better Schools committee who together started an extensive building program; by various civic youth organizations for their work which gave Joliet the lowest proportionate rate of delinquency in the country; and by the Better Joliet committee which helped to bring council-manager government to the city. The award was given to Joliet and ten other United States cities after much consideration by an All-America jury. Joliet's accomplishments were eloquently presented by the city's spokesman, Rabbi M. M. Hershman in Seattle, Wash., on July 25, 1955.

College Office

From giving advice, official and unofficial, through assistance and consolation, to the irreparable recording of grades, the college office runs the gamut of flux to absolute.

HARRIS ENDERSON

Yet the staff members, too, have their lighter moments, and even students in trouble can find a smile on the face of the Dean and sympathy from the Assistant Dean, while everyone knows that laughter is our daily bread.

Tomorrow's Citizens

Commencement exercises on June 8 will end college days at JJC for the sophomores. For some, it will mark six years of attendance, including high school, behind these ivy-covered walls and for others, just two years of college.

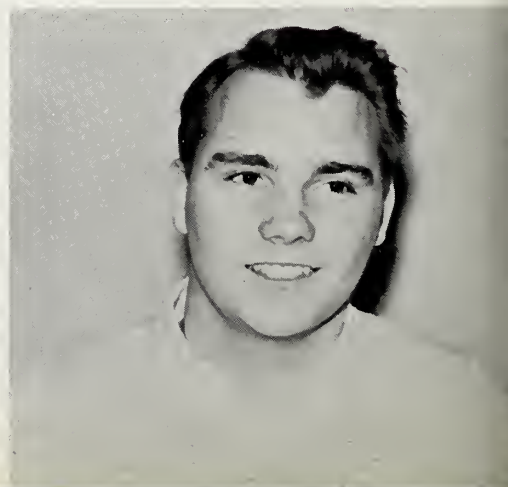

Graduation, in a sense, is the end of a lot of fun, mixers, football and basketball games, parties, formal dances, and so forth. However, it also recalls to us some of the premieres of the school established by this class.

Major first events include: Homecoming, alumni dance, new attendance program for college classes, new scholarship program, formation of an independent social council to plan college events calendar, formation of Veterans' and Booster clubs, first year-book in five years, final development of the college lounge, remodeling of the smoker, and dedication of a monument.

Graduation isn't the end, but rather the beginning, of tomorrow's dream, for with the diploma, one becomes a full-fledged citizen of city, state and nation.

Student Council

"Having a finger in everything around JJC," describes the Student Council, which provides student government and sponsors all-college events.

Sophomore, as well as freshman, class officers make up its members. Sophomore class officers are: Don Lundberg, president; Bruce Tompkins, vice president; and Carol Gardner, secretary-treasurer for the first semester and Ted Webber for the second.

Elected members at large include Sue Fleming, Marcia Lewandowski, Joanne Sigwalt and Gary Wells.

Club representatives are: Booster, Bonnie Reid; Engineers, Jesse Roa; J. C. Players, John Ewing; Lettermen's, George Lehman; Press, Elaine Drick; Students of Medical Science, Joyce Giegerich; Veterans, James St. Germain and John Metrick; and Women's Athletic Association, Donna Radakovich.

President of the Student Council is Don Lundberg; vice president, George Lehman; and secretary-treasurer, Joanne Sigwalt, for the fall semester.

For the spring semester, the president is Don Lundberg; vice president, Bruce Tompkins; and secretary-treasurer, Kay Bussey.

Lehman, Fleming, Bussey, Radakovich, Sigwalt, Jager, Wells, Ewing, Lundberg, Roa, Tompkins, Gardner, Giegerich, Drick, Lewandowski.

Press Club

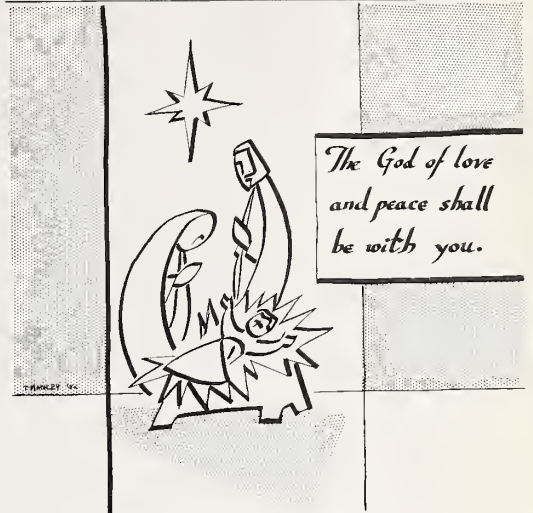

Working on two publications this year is the job of most Press Club members, while a few others go in for a triple assignment consisting of The Blazer, the Wolf Call column in Joliet's Spectator, and The Shield.

The reporters, therefore, are kept continually busy with a Blazer circulation of approximately 900, an over-all readage of the Wolf Call Column equal to the Spectator's circulation and the college yearbook, The Shield.

Blazer editors for the monthly publications are: Bob Rub, John Loskill, Phyllis Olivo, Marcia Ayers, Kathy Duvall, Bob Johnson, Mary Brett, Charlotte Gecan and Ron Batozech. Bill George is sports editor while Judy Michael and Jo Sigwalt draw cartoons and Sam Tillman takes photographs. Elaine Drick is Student Council Representative.

The Shield is written and edited by an Editorial Board of four members: Charlotte Gecan, sophomore section; Mary Brett, freshman section; Marcia Ayers, clubs and events; Gary Wells, sports

Other active members of the Press Club include: Shirley Ceci, Margaret Klavins, Dom Raino, Paul Kreis and Bob Winterstein.

Carter, Gardner, Drick, Johnson, Michael, Duvall, Kreis.

QUINTONES: D. McNabb, Daniel, Kramer, Ceci, Zelko.

Choir

The winner of the Homecoming Parade Float contest is this year's Choir which is sponsored by Dr. Hal Dellinger.

The float was made in the form of a huge whale with the legs of a man sticking out of its mouth and the caption, "We'll Swallow All But Defeat." King Neptune and a Mermaid were also part of the display. Their candidate was freshman Gerry Scaccia for Homecoming Queen.

Choir officers selected this year are: Don Caneva, president; Dan McNabb, vice president; Flo Daniel, secretary; Bill Lauderdale, treasurer; co-social chairmen, Joyce Giegerich and Bob Zelko; librarians, Gary Walk and Russ Kramer; and robe chairmen, Carole Gardner and Shirley Ceci.

The Quintones, a group chosen from among Choir members, include: Shirley Ceci, soprano; Flo Daniel, alto; Bob Zelko, second tenor; Russ Kramer, first tenor, and Dan McNabb, baritone.

Activities of the Choir are to perform in the oratorio, "The Messiah," the Spring Musicales, concerts and social events.

Caneva, Johnson, D. Winterstein, Ewing, Catarello, Rende, Wells, M. O'Brien, Francis, Geske, Kloster, Vella, Barnes, Moore, Snyder, Daniels, Fleming, Seron, Bourrie, Scaccia, Chalstrom.

J. C. Players

With John Ewing as president; Gary Wells, vice president; and Dolores Barnes, secretary-treasurer, the J. C. Players proceeded to make plans for three one-act plays to be presented in February and "Claudia," directed by B. F. Johnston, to be presented in March. The one-act plays and their student directors are: "Balcony Scene," John Ewing; "A Cup of Tea," Orie Seron and "Lady of Dreams," Marie Chalstrom.

Assisting the officers were: Marie Chalstrom, casting; Jackie Bourrie, costume; Artis Moore, Make-up; Pat Snyder, program; Roger Geske, properties; and Don Doyle, publicity.

Other activities included entering a float in the Homecoming Parade. Constructing two masks, one gay and the other sad, to represent the victor and loser in the Homecoming game, the Players built their float.

Sponsored by B. F. Johnston, the purpose of the club is to promote dramatic interests.

Engineers' Club

Something different was added this year in the Engineers' Club: the membership of two girls, Joyce Potter and Judy Sanders.

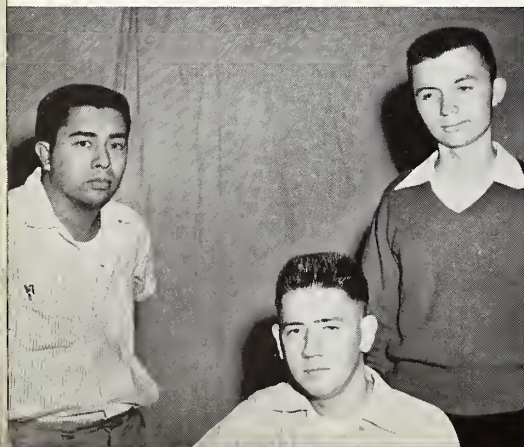

However, the men managed to retain their leadership by electing Jim Yakich, president; Jesse Roa, vice president, and Val Spreitzer, secretary-treasurer for the first semester and for the second semester, Any Prophet, president; Phil Egizio, vice president; and Harold Swinford, secretary-treasurer.

Under the advisorship of D. W. Castle, the group enjoyed many activities: a trip to the Pratt Manufacturing Company, guest speakers and a dinner sponsored by professional engineers.

Jo Sigwalt, a sophomore, was chosen to run as the Engineers' choice for Homecoming Queen.

The group presented gold and silver pendants to its scholastic award winners for spring, 1955: Paul Holmstrom, James Stephenson, Gene Pirc, James St. Germain, Basil Libovicz, Jesse Roa, James Miller and Dale Vercellotti and to others for fall, 1955.

Students of Medical Science

Students who have some interest in the medical field are invited to join the club, Students of Medical Science, which is sponsored by Edmund Puddicombe.

SMS officers in the fall semester include: Gene McCarney, president; Sherald Gordon, vice president; Carol Benjamin and Barbara Long, secretary; John Dennis, treasurer.

Spring semester officers include: Sherald Gordon, president; Jack Snider, vice president; Barbara Long, secretary; Bob Madsen, treasurer; Jack Radke and Margaret Klavins, Student Council representative and alternate, respectively.

Connie Robinson was elected as Homecoming Queen candidate. She and the other student nurses in training at Silver Cross Hospital who take courses at Joliet Junior College were invited to join the club also.

Activities feature medical movies, speakers holding M. D. degrees; trips by club members to such hospitals as: Hines Veterans', Wesley Memorial, and the University of Illinois where the group witnessed a surgical operation; a picnic and a Christmas party.

Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association this year chose for their officers: Sylvia Jurkovich, president; Loretta Plavec, vice president; Jan Richardson, secretary-treasurer; Orie Seron, head of activities, and Sue Fleming, head of publicity.

Sponsored by Miss Wanda Stasieluk, the women presented a Christmas Tea for their mothers and coke parties during the year, while the officers attended the conference of Illinois Athletic Federation of College Women at MacMurray College.

The group selected Dolores Davis, a freshman, as their Homecoming Queen candidate.

Judged on personality, poise, pep, motions, movements and personal appearance, were the 1955-56 cheerleading squad members who were: Mary Brett, Judy Lukanich, Bonnie Reid, Captain, Orie Seron, Judy Zusag and Bob Johnson, Co-Captain, with Georgiana Dodge and Sue Montgomery, alternates.

Purple sweaters and white slacks were in style during the football season, while white blouses and purple skirts won approval for basketball events.

Dodge, Lukanich, Montgomery.

Closely allied with the Cheerleaders is the newly-organized pep club, the Boosters, which is sponsored by Miss Susan Wood, assistant dean.

With promoting school spirit as the club's aim, the members elected Sue Montgomery, president; Kay Bussey, vice president; and Lois Dumyahn, secretary-treasurer.

Activities included an October bonfire pep rally preceding a loop parade, special school color days, and JJC pennant and white 'mum and sweatshirt sales.

Judy Lukanich was chosen as the Homecoming Queen candidate.

Veterans' Club

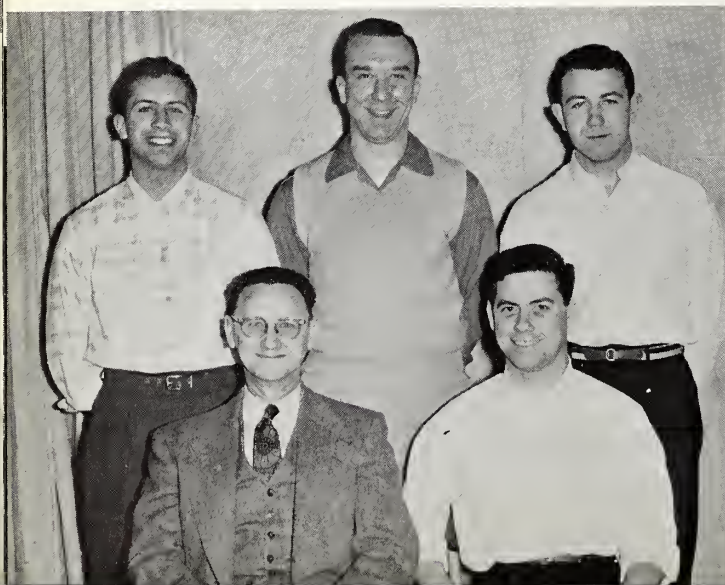

A returning soldier from Korea heads the Veterans Club this year and answers to the name of "Ed" Reeves. He was assisted by vice presidents Joe Catarello (first semester) and Norm Nemanich (second semester); secretary-treasurer George Lehman who was followed by Bill Verd; social chairman, Don Lundberg who was replaced by Tom Welch; publicity chairman, Ray Rutter; and Student Council representative, James St. Germain who was later succeeded by John "Gene" Metrick.

Composed of 82 members, the Vets backed Phyllis Olivo for Homecoming Queen which she became.

Activities centered around the men's "adopting" a family for Christmas. The mother and six children were furnished with a Christmas basket containing food and toys. Also on the activity list for the Vets were a chicken dinner and social events such as picnics, parties, and a hayrack ride. Much ado was made over the rack's tractor when, somewhere along the trail, the tractor lost its wheel. However, the Vets managed to overcome the obstacle and wound up at Bill Reece's for a party.

Headliner of the special events of the college this year is Phyllis Olivo, Homecoming Queen. The Homecoming weekend began with a Pep Rally bonfire and parade and ended with the after-game dance at the Moose Club. The JJC Choir won the float prize with its slogan, "We'll swallow all but defeat."

Furthering human relations between countries was the theme of a national conference attended by three JJC students, Charlotte Gecan, Annette Theodore and Ed Sparks.

Winter brought with it "Artistry in Snow," the Winter Formal dance. As the collegiates danced to Buddy Morrow's music they also enjoyed the decorations which included a spiral-peaked ceiling with icicles. The orchestra played within a huge red and silver sleigh.

At Christmas, the Community-College Little Symphony Orchestra and the Oratorio Society presented Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," conducted by Peter Labella, instructor.

New Year's Eve was celebrated by the collegiates at the dance this year with paraphernalia representing the coming year seen everywhere.

Many JC students participated in dramatics. Three dramatic enthusiasts directed one-act plays: Marie Chalstrom, Orie Seron and John Ewing. The annual spring production, "Claudia," was directed by B. F. Johnston, speech instructor.

As spring approached, the collegiates began to prepare for the spring formal which was in a French theme, "Le Printemps." With Billy Lester's orchestra promised, the JJC'ers waited for a festive time.

Competing with these spring activities was the annual spring musical, "A Tribute to Irving Berlin" with the Swing Band as well as the Choir members participating, directed by Dr. Hal Dellinger.

Roy Carlson, Line Coach; Herm Walser, Head Coach.

The Wolves howled out a victorious tune on the gridiron this season under the adept batons of coaches Herm Walser and Roy Carlson.

After carrying the Purple and White to five straight wins, the fighting Joliet squad suffered a Homecoming defeat at the hands of Thornton of Harvey. Their only other loss was to Wheaton College in the last game of the season.

Showing a great deal of spirit, the Wolves opened the season by upsetting the Illinois State Normal J. V.'s at DeKalb. They then followed up by defeating North Park, Wilson, Valparaiso and Wright and took the much desired scalp of LaSalle-Peru before a huge crowd at LaSalle.

The success the team enjoyed was due, not only to the excellent coaching by Walser and Carlson but also to their patience, understanding and over-all attitude toward the players.

It was through the combined efforts of the coaches and players and the spirited support of the faculty and student body that the Joliet Junior College colors were carried to a six-win, two-loss record and second place in the Illinois Junior College Conference.

It is with reluctance that we bid farewell to such stalwarts as "Brunch" Lehman, "Abe" Tietz, Joe Rende, "Hump" Voight, Tom and Paul Birsas, Jim Yahnke, John Lesnik, Joe Catarello, Angelo Barney, George Legan and "Archie" Fazio. These men displayed the teamwork, fair play and desire to win that spells good sportsmanship.

To next year's returning lettermen: Ed Mayer, Joe Shetina, Garry Wells, "Moose" Kowalczyk, Rich Lasser and Ron McDowell, we say, "Good luck, Wolves!"

Joliet Junior College vs. Thornton; HOMECOMING

Golf, Baseball

The Joliet Junior College golf team took fifth place in the Illinois Junior College Conference meet after playing the heaviest schedule in the history of the team.

Paced by Ed Czerkies who wound up the season with a 78 average, the Wolves showed good form and a promising potential for next year.

Under the guiding hand of Coach S. F. Winterroth, the Joliet squad approached the green against ten opposing teams. The over-all record for the season was not too good mostly because of inexperience in competitive play.

After losing the first four games to DeKalb, Wright, Thornton (twice), the Wolves bounced back with victories over St. Procopius and LaGrange, lost another to North Park, St. Procopius and Wright, then finished the season with a 10-5 victory over LaGrange.

Defending the Joliet colors on the baseball diamond this year will be returning lettermen Bob Penosky, Jim Greenan, Bill Otis, Pete McBride and Bill James.

Bright new prospects such as Don Flatt, Ted Adams, Don Schwiesow, Lou Verchimak, Jim Miller, Don Smith, Ron McDowell, George Nahas, and Jim Slobodnik will fill out the roster.

The Wolves turned in a great record last year, and baseball mentor A. A. Wills anticipates an even better one this season.

Kramer, Honiotes, Grant, Snider, Otis, Czerkies, Spreitzer. S. F. Winterroth.

James and Penosky fight LaGrange for a basket.

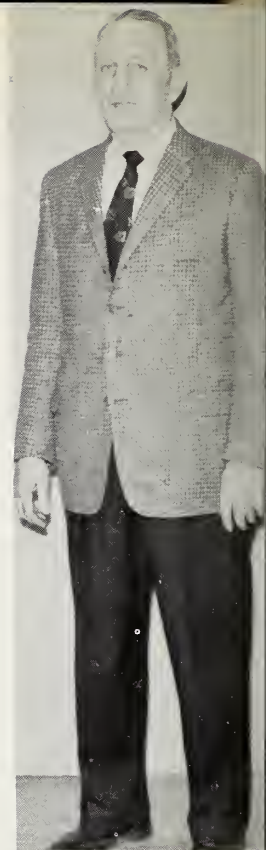

Basketball

Six returning lettermen were the nucleus of Coach A. A. Wills' basketball team this year. The practice sessions began in the fall and by the first game, we had a basketball team we could be proud of—a scrapping, fighting ball team headed by high scoring Pete McBride, Don Flatt and Robert Penosky.

The 1955-56 cage squad came out on top in 15 of 23 games including five of the conference titls. The Wolves were invited to participate in the National Regional tournament in Flint, Michigan, March 9 and 10, 1956.

Major players include: Bob Penosky, Henry Sing, Charlie Sing, forward; Jim Greenan, Ted Adams, Don Flat, guard; Sherald Gordon, Will James, Pete McBride, center.

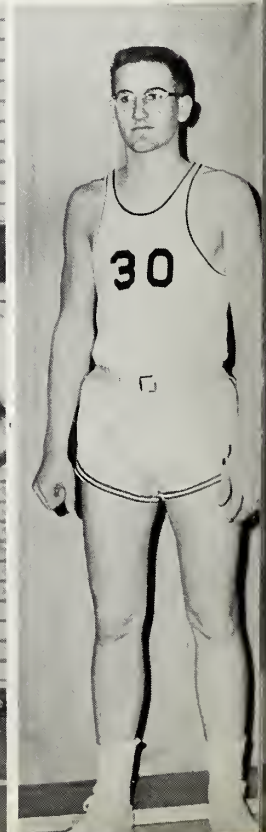

Some memorable scores were: Chanute 78—Joliet 70; Purdue Ext. 50-95; Crane 69-79; Thornton 90-98; Chanute 68-68; Palmer 93-94; Benton Harbor 69-82; LaGrange 72-84; North Park 71-90.

Wrestling

The first wrestling squad JJC has had in a long time was trained by Coach Hal Wimberly who produced an excellent wrestling squad. After a rather disastrous start, during which the Wolves lost to Wheaton "B" team, 20 to 18, they won against the University of Chicago 26 to 10. Though hampered by losses in the rest of the matches, Coach Wimberly's Wolves went on gamely: Wheaton "B" 25—JJC 9; Illinois Tech 18—JJC 12; Wright JC 23—JJC 11.

The outlook for 1956 and 1957 contests is very good since only six men will be lost by graduation. Replacements are being made now, in advance.

Co-Captains of the squad are Richard Lasser and Tony Bertucci, both sophomores. Other matmen are as follows: 123 pounds, Jim Johnston; 130, George Provance and George Alderman; 137, Bruce Tompkins; 147, Richard Hrpcha; 157, Bennie Sims; 167, Richard Lasser; 177, Fred Goss; and heavyweights, Tonny Bertucci, Gale Voight and John Bakos. Robert Johnson is the team's manager.

CHEERLEADER CAPTAINS

Acting as Captain and Co-Captain of the Cheerleaders are Bonnie Reid and Robert J. Johnson who trained the leaders and directed all the cheers. Both students were Cheerleaders throughout high school (picture, opposite page, lower right).

Madjak, Witherspoon, Legan, Rende, Drancik, Voight, Lesnik, Kowalczyk, Bertucci, Kramer, Lundberg, Tietz, T. Birsa, P. Birsa, A. Fazio, Barney, Otis, Pluth, Flatt.

Lettermen's Club

The Lettermen's Club is composed of those men who have earned a letter in football, basketball, baseball, track, wrestling, golf or tennis. Its major function is to raise funds by various activities to buy letter jackets for those men who have earned them in athletics. It has been a very active club this season in organizing and promoting many school activities new to the college, including a football banquet.

Officers for the first semester are: George Lehman, president; Don Lundberg, vice president and Bob Tietz, secretary-treasurer. Second semester officers are: Don Lundberg, president; Bob Tietz, vice president. The candidate for Homecoming Queen is Madeline Martin.

P. Birsa, Lesnik, Lukanich, Tietz, Catarello, Seron.

Orchesis members present a program for the JTHS and JC Parents' Night.

Orchesis

Orchesis is an honorary modern dance organization and is found on most college and university campuses across the country. Membership is by invitation only following a period of training and try-outs.

Orchesis at Joliet Junior College is sponsored by Miss Vera Thalrose of the women's physical education department. Miss Thalrose received her training in the art of modern dance from many notables in the field. She came to JJC five years ago and has been devoting her time and effort to interested students ever since.

The group is dedicated to its art and studies dance techniques, fundamentals of musical accompaniment and composition of dance. The students often do their own choreography under their sponsor's supervision.

Our Orchesis group has appeared in "Lute Song" at the College of St. Francis; also before the Altrusa club, the Chicago Dance Council, the JC musical, "A Tribute to Irving Berlin," and has accepted various other engagements such as the annual WAA Christmas tea and JTHS and JC Parents' Night.

The club meets weekly for various studies in dance and to rehearse for its next performance. Members of the 1955-56 Orchesis group are: Bonnie Reid, Marcia Lewandowski, Frances Braun, Marie Chalstrom, Orie Seron, Madeline Martin, Barbara Fiddes, Kathy Duvall, Jane Rude, Shirley Ceci, Gerry Scaccia, Mary Brett, Earlene Binkle and Joan Foy.

Acknowledgments

Before closing the cover, we want to thank the many people whose interest and cooperation helped bring this book into being: the Student Council, Dean Rowley, Assistant Dean Wood and the Student body for whom it was made.

We are especially indebted to the staff of the JTHS "J," William Allen, their sponsor, and Jim Stephenson, photographer, for the gift of the prints of the faculty portraits, without which our book would have no faculty section. We thank Mel Koehler for his fine professional work on the sophomore portraits and freshmen and club group pictures. Sam Tillman, Tom Balla and James Skul gave unstintingly of time and attention to the sports, events and division pages. Special credit goes to Maynard Leatsler, photography instructor, for the many kindnesses, special services and pictures which made the whole possible. The Student Council photography committee: Charlotte Gecan, Ed Sparks, Annette Theodore and Miss Wood, helped solve problems created by the large number of photos to be taken. The Joliet Herald News contributed the sports division page.

To Bob Winterstein for our cover title and title page art work we are admiringly grateful and also to the following Art Club members for small drawings: Jon Scudieri, Andrew Klavins, Thomas Manley, Bob Winterstein and Mary Vella.

For the copy-writing and many accompanying editorial duties the advisor is proud of The Shield Editorial Board: Marcia Ayers, clubs and events, Mary Brett, freshmen; Charlotte Gecan, sophomores; and Garry Wells, football, golf and book sales campaign. Ron Batozech greatly assisted with sales. Additional writing assignments were ably performed by Marie Chalmstrom, Orchesis; Robert Johnson, wrestling, basketball; and Robert Rub, dedication.
